CURE WARRANTED

IF DIRECTIONS ARE FOLLOWED. TO CALL FOR A CIRCULAR DESCRIBING ALL SYMPTOMS, ______

The symptoms of Catarrh as they generally appear are at first very slight. Persons find they have a cold, that they have frequent attacks, and are more sensitive to the changes of temperature. In this condition, the nose may be dry, or a slight discharge, thin an acrid, afterwards becoming thick and adhesive. As the disease becomes chronic, the discharges are increased in quantity and changed in quality; they are now thick and heavy, and are hawked or coughed off. The secretions are offensive; causing a bad breath; the voice is thick and nasal; the eyes are weak; the sense of the smell is lessened or destroyed; deafness frequently takes place.—Another common and important symptom of Catarrh is, that the person is obliged to clear his threat in the morning of a thick or slimy mucus, which has fallen down from the head during the night. When this takes place the person may be sure that his disease is on its way to the lungs, and should lose no time in arresting it.

The above are but a few of the many Catarrh symptoms. SYMPTOMS:

A single Bottle will last a month-To be used three times a day.

TESTIMONIAL

From Hon, Thos. A. Turner, Ec. Member of Congress from Illinois, late Speaker of Minois House of Representatives, and birant Master of A., F. and A. M., of the State of Illinois. FREEPORT, Oct 21, 1863.

DR. D. H. SEELYE: DEAR SEELIE:

DEAR SER—In reply to your notice of the 18th inst., I would say that I was severely affil ted with Catarrh for years, when I became acquainted with you and bought two bottles of your Liquid Catarrh Remedy. Hefore I had used one bottle I was sensibly improved, and before the second bottle was finished, was completely cured. I can recommend the medicine to all afflicted with Catarrh.

Respectfully Yours.

It is fraught with great difficulty. Unlike a case of war between independent nations, there is not an authorized organ for us to Concede that the new Government of Lou-isiana is only what it should be, as the egg is to the fowl—we shall sooner have fowl by hatching the egg than by smashing it. [Laughter.] Again, if we reject Louisiana we also reject our vote in favor of the protreat with. No man has authority to give up rebellion for any other man. We sim-ply must begin with a mold from disorganized and discordant elements. Nor is it a posed amendment to the Constitution.— To meet this proposition it has been argued that no more than three-fourths of those small additional embarrassment that we loyal people differ among ourselves as to the mode, manner and measure of a recon-States which have not attempted secession are necessary to validly ratify the amendment. I do not commit myself against this further than to say that such inference would be questionable, and sure to be perstruction. As a general rule, I abstain from reading reports of attacks upon myself, wishing not to be provoked by that to which I can not properly offer answer. In spite of this precaution, however, it comes sistently questioned, while a ratification by to my knowledge that I am much censured three-fourths of all States would be unfor some supposed agency in setting up and seeking to sustain the new State Govjuestioned and unquestionable. I repeat the question. Can Louisiana be brought into a proper political relation with the Union sooner by abolishing or acknowlernment of Louisiana. In this I have done just so much, and no more, than the public knows. In my annual message of Decemedging her new State Government? What has been said of Louisiana will apply to othber, 1863, and accompanying proclamation, I presented a plan of reconstruction, which I presented a pian of reconstruction, which I promised, if adopted by any State, would be acceptable to and sustained by the Executive Government. I distinctly said this was not the only plan which might possibly er States, and yet, so great peculiarities pertain to each State, and such important and sudden changes in the same State, and with-al so new and unprecedented is the whole case, that no exclusive and inflexible plan be acceptable, and I also distinctly protest can safely be prescribed as to details and collatterals. Each exclusive and inflexible ed that the Executive claimed not the right to say when or whether members should be plan would surely become new entangle-ment. Important principles may and must be inflexible in presentation, as the phrase admitted to seats in Congress from such States. This plan was in advance of that submitted and approved by every member of the Cabinet. One of them suggested that I should then, and in that connection, goes. men endeavoring to answer that question. I have purposely forborne any public expression upon it, as it appears to me that the question has not been, nor yet is, prac-tically a material one, and that the discussion of it, while it remains practically im-material, could have no effect other than the mischievous one of dividing our friends.

As yet, whatever it may become, that question is bad as a basis of controversy, and good for nothing. We all agree that the second States, so called, are out of their proper particular relation with the Union, and that the sole object of the Government, civil and military, in regard to those States is to again get them into that proper rela-tion. I believe that it is not only possible, but in fact easier to do this without declaring or even considering whether those States have ever been out of the Union than

The amount of the constituency, so to speak, on which the Louisiana Government rests, would be more satisfactory to all, if it contained 50,000, 90,000 or even 200,000, instead of 12,000 as it does. It is also satisfactory to some, that the elective franchist is not given to colored men. I would my-
